

No Escape

Hexx

Picture a man in another time...
Sailing virgin seas...
He dreams of home as he draws in life...
From the cold dark sea...

Then from behind an evil laughter...
Destroys his magic scene...
To his dismay he turns to find...
Demons rising from a dream...

Watch Out... There's evil all around
Look Out... They long to bring you down

With no escape still he tries to flee...
Without a sound his world explodes...
Plunged into battling nightmares...
From demons' abodes...

Then with a start, as he awakens...
He fails to hold a gasp...
The beast is laughing, poor man is running...
He's got him at last...

Watch Out... There's evil all around
Look Out... They long to bring you down
Watch Out... Your soul must not be bound

Watch Out...

OH WATCH OUT!!!...
