

Alright

Hey Ocean!

I don't know why you say those things about yourself
Actually I think they might be harmful for your health
Cause you're alright in my eyes
I will forgive you anything (?)
Yeah you're alright in my eyes
And I will never ever think differently about you babe
No no way
No no way
No no way
Though I try I can't seem to make you understand
That I would try anything to make you see you deserve a better man
And you may think it's strange that it's just a phase
Something that I'm going through
And this ain't gonna change thinking is my days,
Not just for the honeymoon
Ohh oh oh oh ohh
Ohh oh oh
I don't know why I say these things about myself
Not that I think it might be harmful to my health
With nothing to lose but not much left to gain
You forgot to ask me, ask me if I felt the same
Cause you're alright in my eyes
I will forgive you anything
Yeah you're alright in my eyes
And I will never ever think differently about you babe
No no way x20
