Change

Hey Ocean!

My baby's got some trouble
He know he's not himself
Oh, he's walking through the rubble
Of what he brought himself
Brought on himself, he says

I can't seem to do what you do (what you do)
You know it's hard for me
And I can't seem to change

So now my baby's tryin' to fix it
He'd do it all himself
But it's harder than he thinks it is
And he may need some help
Might need, might need some help, he says

I can't seem to do what you do (what you do)
You know it's hard for me
And I can't see, it's you what you do (what you do)
Oh and it's not what you say
I can't seem to do what you do (what you do)
You know it's hard for me
And I can't seem to change

My baby's got a lover
He know he loves instead
Oh you, you just don't know what you do to me babe
Oh you're losin' me babe
Every time you say

I can't seem to do what you do (what you do)
You know it's hard for me
Well I can't see, it's you what you do (what you do)
Oh and it's not what you say
I can't seem to do what you do (what you do)
You know it's hard for me
And I can't seem to change
Can't change, I can't change
I can't seem to change
I just can't change
And I can't seem to...

Baby baby baby
Time to settle the score
Cause if you're not gonna change
You better walk out the door
Baby baby baby
Time to settle the score
Cause if you're not gonna change
I don't need you no more
