

Bitter Pill

Hey Violet

Take it in, take it in
You got such a cute imagination, it's wandering
Lying wide awake until 6 in the morning
And I'm sleeping cozy
Reality's sinking in

I heard you been, heard you been
Asking all your friends about how I been, where I been Didn't someone teach you how to take it right on the chin?
Well, this could get interesting...
(Ah, ah)

You ever taste the way I walk away inside of your mouth?
It's a bitter pill now, it's a bitter pill now
And then you swallow all your pride and hope you figure it out
It's a bitter pill now, I bet it's hitting you now

I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
Now that you're on your knees and you cry in the shower
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now

(Uh)
Right away, right away
You will fall apart in a million little ways
No one else is gonna make you
Feel the way that I did
Touch you like Midas
Is it bad that I like this?

You ever taste the way I walk away inside of your mouth?
It's a bitter pill now, it's a bitter pill now
And then you swallow all your pride and hope you figure it out
It's a bitter pill now, I bet it's hitting you now

I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
Now that you're on your knees and you cry in the shower
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now

I can't count all the times
That you said things would change
And it all stayed the same
Just say goodbye

I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
(Ah!)

I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now

I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
Now that you're on your knees and you cry in the shower
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now

Like a bullet to your vein now, baby
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
You take me like a game, oh baby
I bet it's hitting you now
I bet it's hitting you now
