

Queen Of The Night

Hey Violet

I've bandaged your bruises, you've held back my hair
Who'd've known when this started that we'd end up here, here?
But you reach out and touch me, say my name like a prayer
All my friends say you're dangerous, but I don't fucking care

'Cause there's something about it that brings me to life
Yeah, I know all the consequences, I don't mind
This holy redemption tears us in two
But I can't turn my back to you
Wearing your t-shirt, I'm queen of the night
One hand on the wheel, and one hand on my thigh
And I know it sounds crazy, but babe I am too
I just can't turn my back to you

When the night goes quiet and we're up in your room
And you're kissing my fingers, and I kiss your tattoos
I could play in bed with you and talk shit forever-ever
If this is all a dream, wake me up never, never, never Swear to God, cross my heart, no one does it better, better
Boy I love ya, always gonna

'Cause there's something about it that brings me to life
Yeah, I know all the consequences, I don't mind
This holy redemption tears us in two
But I can't turn my back to you
Wearing your t-shirt, I'm queen of the night
One hand on the wheel, and one hand on my thigh
And I know it sounds crazy, but babe I am too
I just can't turn my back to you

Something about it that brings me to life
Yeah, I know all the consequences, I don't mind
This holy redemption tears us in two
I can't turn my back to you

Wearing your t-shirt, I'm queen of the night
One hand on the wheel, and one hand on my thigh
And I know it sounds crazy, but babe I am too
I just can't turn my back to you
I just can't turn my back to you
