

How Could You Know

High Highs

We used to meet
Alone on the clifftops
Looking down at the sea
Every part of me

Was so completely
Open, hoping
We'd collect me
And move through the silence

I won't let that go
Won't let it fall away

Ooooh, eeeh
Hold me in your arms, say
How could you know?
How could you know?
That I loved you so
It's falling rain

Lately I hide
And all that you know
Look in my eyes
The freedom to let go

Before the morning
She knows me well
Salty summer
Oh how it felt

I won't let that go
Won't let it fall away

Ooooh, eeeh
Hold me in your arms, say
How could you know?
How could you know?
That I loved you so
It's falling rain

It's time. It's falling rain
It's time. It's falling rain
It's time. It's falling rain
It's time. It's falling rain
It's time. It's falling rain
It's time. It's falling rain
It's time. It's falling rain-ain
