

Fuck Me Up

Highly Suspect

Woman, I can see your ring
It ain't too hard to tell that it don't mean a thing
You better be careful what you're asking for
I got a loaded gun and I've used it before
I said now, hey, little mama, let me give you a ride
I need another reason to feel dead inside
Don't ask me for my name, it's not a part of the plan
All you gotta know is I'm a dangerous man

Fuck me up, fuck me up good
Fuck me up, fuck me up good

Hey, little girl, I know you know how to move
You're dropping it down like you got something to prove
Your freaky hips and your big fat thighs
I wanna get a taste of what you got inside
I said now, hey, little girl, you rip off your shirt
Leave on your heels while I lift up your skirt
Don't ask me for my name, it's not a part of the plan
All you gotta know is I'm a dangerous man

Fuck me up, fuck me up good
Fuck me up, fuck me up good
Fuck me up, fuck me up good
Fuck me up, fuck me up

I said now, hey, little mama, let me give you a ride
I need another reason to feel dead inside
Don't ask me for my name, it's not a part of the plan
Now, all you gotta know is I'm a dangerous man
I said now, hey, little girl, you rip off your shirt
You leave on your heels while I lift up your skirt
Don't ask me for my name, it's not a part of the plan
All you gotta know is I'm a dangerous man
