

Wait

There's something simple I've been meaning to say
I've been thinking about throwing my life away
I know you never check your messages anyway
But I wish you'd just say anything

I wanna be your teddy bear
Wish I could be
Yours

It's me again I saw the story that you posted here last night
And I must confess that I am worried about you
Cause you always look too high
(I lost somebody to addiction)
(Sorry you don't have to listen)
(I know that you won't reply)
I'm talking to myself here
(You could probably help) here
(I wish you'd just say anything)

I wanna be your teddy bear
Wish I could be your teddy bear
But I can see that you won't even ever care
Wish I could be
Yours

And if you're reading this it's already too late
Cause I just couldn't take another shitty day
Thank you anyway
I'll always think you're great
Even though I couldn't be
Your teddy bear
Your teddy bear
And I could see that you won't even care
Wish I could be your teddy bear

Wish I could be
(Wish I could be)
(Wish I could be)
(Wish I could be)
Wish I could be
(Wish I could be)
(Wish I could be)
(Wish I could be)
Wish I could be
Wish I could be
(Wish I could be)
(Wish I could be)
Wish I could be your teddy bear
