

No Love

HIM

Forever and ever!

Shadows grow taller,
And I'm sleeping on my scars
Lonely, I hold her
And crave for your warmth
(And it hurts hard)

There's no love,
No love will be enough
for what I'm feeling
No love
No love will be the end
of this dreaming of you

Hell is freezing over
And the light is long gone
And I wonder where you are

There's no love
No love will be enough,
for what I'm feeling
No love
No love will be the end
of this dreaming of you

We're the stars
In the drawing of the flame
Making love to the rain

There's no love
No love will be enough,
for what I'm feeling
No love
No love will be the end
of this dreaming of you
