Chaos And Brutality

Born to withstand death Fall from grace to rise again Our struggle Still to find faith Pushed into the brink

There will be hell to pay!

Hard as nails forever we stand Madness is all around us Betrayal lies deceit and hate Snapped one day over

There will be hell to pay!

Blood she'd Mass murder has been done Killing in the blink of an eye Unarmed victims are dead

Out of control No one is safe The living die fast one by one Chaos and Brutality We are all going to die Who will be left to bury the dead? NIGHTMARE

Violence wide spread Grim death and fear Bottom feeders feast The face of evil reveals itself

It's a sin to kill You will burn in hell!
