

Crimson Red

Holiday Parade

I'm constantly surrounded by a feeling
It came swirling down and crawled beneath my sheets.
Followed me out to the car and to the park.
She said "You always make me shake."

I think I found something amazing,
Now it's your turn to amaze me.

You paint the sky a crimson red
You bring the stars to life right from your bed
You always make me feel like July
And I wonder why sometimes.

We'll lay up on my roof at night
And watch the shooting stars fly by.
I'll tell you "someday I'll take you there."
I love the pretty songs you sing
The way you bring me to my knees,
Your paralyzing voice.

I think I found something amazing
Now it's your turn to amaze me.

You paint the sky a crimson red
You bring the stars to life right from your bed
You always make me feel like July
And I wonder why sometimes

Take my words and your time
Feeling empty but always blind
You let the radio play

Our love's deep like the seas
I face the waves as your currents drown me
You sweep me away

Take my words and your time (you paint the sky)
Feeling empty but always blind (a crimson red)
You let the radio play (you bring the stars to life right from your bed)
Our love's deep like the seas (you always makes me)
I face the waves as your currents drown me (feel like july)
You sweep me away (and I wonder why sometimes).
