

Train Song

Holly Cole

I broke down in east St. Louis on the Kansas City line I drunk up all my money that I borrowed every time I fell down at the derby well the night's just as black as a crow the train took me away from here the train can't bring me home

What made my dream so hollow I was standing at the depot with a steeple full of swallows that could never, what could never, who could never never ring the bell I've gone ten thousand miles away without one thing to show it was a train took me away from here

Well I remember when I left without bothering to pack You know I up and left just the clothes I had on my back now I'm so sorry for what I've done and I'm out here on my own
it was a train took me away from here

the train can't bring me, the train can't bring me, the train c an't bring me... home
