

When You Come Down

Holly McNarland

She sounds so perfect
You taste her in your dreams
Sleeps so quietly
He secretly adores her
I'm listening, listening to my friend
He's in love again

When you come down I'll be waiting
When you come down I'll be hurting
When you come down I'll be waiting
When you come down

She seems so nervous
She's looking at me
I'm watching listening to my friend
He's in love again

It sounds so real this time
Don't you forget about me
I'll wait here so patiently
The dust dies down
I'm watching, watching my friend again
He's in love again
