

Unbelievable

Hollywood Ending

I met this girl all alone at the bar
Sippin' on a Coke through a straw
And by the end of the night things got pretty wild
I wish you guys could've saw

I took her out to the back of my car
First we didn't get very far
Then we were rockin' pretty hard
She filled my head full of dirt, she teased me
Then she said let's take this back to her's

When we walked in
We got it on in the kitchen, yeah
Up on the sink by the dishes
My lips were hurt by your kisses
She was good, I'm already missin' her
Man, I think I almost fell in love

Did she love it? (Yeah she dug it, I know she dug it)
Did she go all night or did she blow it? (You'll never know)
I can still taste the sweat on her skin
The way she moved, she totally lost control
Damn, that night was unbelievable

And the morning after
I woke to her in my arms
I was bruised, yeah
Black and blue, yeah
She was perfect, man
She was totally worth it
Now she's got me beggin' her for more

Did you call her? (No I didn't, I never called)
Did you see her again? (Are you kidding? I wish I did)
I can still taste the sweat on her skin
The way she moved, she totally lost control
Glad she said let's take this back to hers
Man, I think I almost fell in love
Damn, that night was unbelievable
