

Coming Home

Hollywood Undead

It gets harder every time I gotta say goodbye
Tears were falling, that's why I can't say it eye-to-eye
Every time that I go, can't find a reason why
Maybe someday you'll know just how I feel inside

Can't hold on, won't let go
Going down the same old road
Have it all, take my soul
Praying that I'll make it home

And even if I pretend it'll be alright
I know I'll see you again in my other life
I'm drifting on and you're all alone
Keep holding on 'cause I'm coming home

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
I'm coming home!

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
I'm coming!
I'm coming!

I have to say goodbye, one day I'll say "hello"
I'll never say goodbye again, I'll never let you go
I keep moving down this long lonely road
I can't wait to hold you when you open up that door

Don't you forget me
I've become the ghost
You're the only thing that matters when I dream
You're my soul

I was always empty
But your heart was made of gold
Then you melted everything around me
You became my hope

I'm drifting on and you're all alone
Keep holding on 'cause I'm coming home

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
I'm coming home!

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
I'm coming!

Where my heart is, my home is
Where my heart is, my home is
Where my heart is, my home is
Where my heart is...
Where my heart is...

I'm coming back to the ones I know!

Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
I'm coming home!

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
I'm coming!
I'm coming home!

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!

I'm coming back to the ones I know!
Never loose hope 'cause I won't let go!
