

Ghost Out

Hollywood Undead

Yeah, yeah

Way back when, I remember back then
I had a couple dollars but I really needed ten
I started plotting and scheming, grinding, bleeding
I ain't fucking dying, you can bank on it, believe it
Yeah, born at the bottom, but I'm dying at the top
And I don't give a fuck how many fucking bodies have to drop 911, yeah, someone call the cops
'Cause this motherfucker here ain't never gonna stop

Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out
Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out

Looking through the peephole, I'm seeing dead people
I'm stuck full of needles like a fucking Saw sequel
I'm praying at the steeple, I'm never going legal
I got a room where my weed grow, it's bigger than my ego
Hit me with the C-Note, I'll fuck you like I'm Cee-Lo
Cooking in the kitchen, whip-whippin' it to Devo
Take a hit, real slow, re-up and reload
99 lives, bitch, I got the cheat code

Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out
Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out

I'm not lucky or blessed, I put hungry to test
And every dollar I made, it needed a bulletproof vest
I just wanna know why you throwin' salt on my game
'Cause I ain't come from shit and I created my lane
The pain is just part of my daily success
And now I'm the plug, lock me up, I confess
I'm the Ouija board sitting on the back of the shelf
But when I turn into the goat, I sacrifice myself

You'll be more famous dead than alive

Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out
Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out

Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out
Everything I touch turns to gold now
I'm the dope man, so I'm dope now
You can call me, I never sold out
I just need to make a mil' before I ghost out
