

Sell Your Soul

Hollywood Undead

I'm holding on so tightly now
My insides scream so loud
They keep watching, watching me drown.
How did it come to this?

How did it come to this?
How did I know it was you?
It was a bad dream, asphyxiated, watch me bleed.
The life support was cut, but now its too tight.
They push and pull me, but they know they'll never win

Throw it all away!!
Throw it all away!!
I keep on screaming, but theres really nothing left to say.
So get away!!
Just get away!!
I keep on fighting, but I can't keep going on this way
Can't keep going,
can't keep going, on like this, they make me sick.

And I get so sick of it.
'Cause they won't let me
they won't let me breathe.
Why can't they let me be?

Why can't they let me be?
Why don't I know what I am?
I force this hate into my heart 'cause it's my only friend.
My lips are sewn shut, I watch myself bleed.
They push and pull me and it's killing me within.

Throw it all away!!
Throw it all away!!
I keep on screaming, but theres really nothing left to say
So get away!!
Just get away!!
I keep fighting, but I cant keep going on this way
I can't keep going,
can't keep going, on this way.
I can't keep going,
can't keep going, on this way.

My heartbeat stumbles, and my back bone crumbles
I feel, is it real? - as the lynch mob doubles.
They want blood and they'll kill for it.
Drain me and they'll kneel for it.
Burn me at the stake
now the devil made the deal for it.
Guillotine dreams, yeah their guillotine gleams their blood of their enemies.
Watch it while they sentence me.
Sentence ceased, sentence deceased.
Watch me bask in the glory of their holy disease.

Throw it all away!!
Throw it all away!!
I keep on screaming, but theres really nothing left to say

So get away!!

Just get away!!

I keep on fighting, but I cant keep going on this way

I keep on running, I keep on running, I keep on running

but I cant keep going on this way

I keep on running, I keep on running, I keep on running

but I cant keep going on this way!!
