

Unholy

Hollywood Undead

What's up?
Here we go

I'm unholy
Unholy

You say you're out here looking for a miracle
Yeah, I'm prepared to give you something biblical Try and stop me, that shit is pitiful
It's pitiful
You're in danger
If the person in the mirror is a stranger
I know you're holding onto all that anger
Is it the reflection of a savior?
A savior

Bow down, if you wanna be saved
I'm not sorry, I'll give you something to hate
You can't change me, it's already too late
You think I'm unholy? Wait till you know me!

I'm unholy
Unholy

The world has always labeled me a nihilist
Because I find the beauty in the violence
My mind is always loudest in the silence
A living contradiction
Every single day's stranger than fiction
I'm afflicted by my own affliction
I'm addicted to my own addiction

It's like a beast

Bow down, if you wanna be saved
I'm not sorry, I'll give you something to hate
You can't change me, it's already too late
You think I'm unholy? Wait till you know me!

I'm unholy
Unholy

Bow down, if you wanna be saved
I'm not sorry, I'll give you something to hate
You can't change me, it's already too late
You think I'm unholy? Wait till you know me!

Now!
You think I'm unholy? Wait till you know me!
