

Modern Day God

Holy Mother

Satisfied your spirit
you blamed your past on youth
Sanctified by Jesus
it's time you faced the truth
And why - Oh, you blamed it on the devil inside
But you don't give a fuck anyway!

Your Saturday binge is for happiness
And your Sundays crying to God
Can't decide what religion you own
And your demons steering you wrong
Steering you wrong
I lost my God, but I gained youth
You tell everyone that I am
God - God - Yeah I'm the Modern Day God
God - Yes - I'm the Modern Day God

Your Saturdays binge is for happiness
And your Sundays crying to God
Can't decide what religion you own
And your demons steering you wrong
Steering you wrong
I lost my God, but I gained youth
You tell everyone that I am
God - God - Yeah I'm the Modern Day God
God - Yes - I'm the Modern Day God

Satisfied your spirit
Sanctified by youth
You saw the Ghost of Jesus Christ
You finally faced the truth
Escape the lasting strain
Escape the lasting strain
Sanctified by Jesus
Sanctified by youth

You called the Ghost of Jesus Christ
You finally faced the truth
Escape the lasting strain,
Escaped the lasting Strain Yeah
And I am the Modern Day God
Strain Yeah, Along comes Sunday

You tell everyone that I am God, God
I am the modern day God, God
Yes I am the modern day god
