

Doo Dah

Homeshake

Holy Moly get a load of this cat
Just woke up and pawing for a little scratch
These two, they're a perfect match

I dipped out but only for a minute
Came right back, but she was hurt couldn't laugh
It's blurry and overcast

She's spaced out now everything is soaked off
All I hear is cryin and it marks your eyes
All over again, goodbye
Alright, my baby is outta sight
