

Timing

Homeshake

Drag your feet across the floor
Feeling so relieved
Turning up the thermostat to get a little heat
I could make a cup of coffee
I could make a cup of tea
If I feel like it

Have a little dream
Sitting staring at She's lying in the Where I
Everything I think about is timing
Where it isn't what I do
Don't think I can handle this silence
what's the use
Feeling pretty dry in my eyelids
She'll be heading home in an hour or two

It's past 11:30 and I
Hold on, baby what did you say?
Looking so good
Please
Everything I think about is timing
Where it isn't what I do
Don't think I can handle this silence
what's the use
Feeling pretty dry in my eyelids
She'll be heading home in an hour or two
