

End Of The Line

Honeyz

All alone, I wait for you
As darkness fills this room
I don't know why you ain't called
Little things you used to do
They're no longer part of you
Seems you left them all behind

Well, I can't believe what I'm going through
This thing, it just ain't right
Your selfish ways
How you carry on
Some things you just can't hide

If you want me to go
Then say it
Want me to stay
Then show it
Don't be afraid
Oh, don't break this heart of mine
Now's the time, if I'm right
Then we've come to the end of the line
So say it
Want me to stay
Then show it
Don't be afraid
Oh, don't break this heart of mine
Now's the time, if I'm right
Then we've come to the end of the line

Seems like I can't do you right
All I do or say is wrong
All the smallest things criticized
I deserve some damn respect
Nothing more and nothing less
Don't pretend everything's fine

Don't hold it back if it's in your heart
Stand up and be a man
Can't read your mind
So I'll just say out loud
I'm trying to understand

If you want me to go
Then say it
Want me to stay
Then show it
Don't be afraid
Oh, don't break this heart of mine
Now's the time, if I'm right
Then we've come to the end of the line
So say it
Want me to stay
Then show it
Don't be afraid
Oh don't break this heart of mine
Now's the time, if I'm right
Then we've come to the end of the line

Even though you've been doing me wrong
I still care
Do you think that by treating me cruel
That somehow I'll disappear?
Baby I love you too much just to walk away
Don't make me hate you
Baby, you've got to be straight

If you want me to go
Then say it
Want me to stay
Don't be afraid, baby, show it
Don't be afraid
Don't be afraid, oh, don't break this heart of mine
Now's the time, if I'm right
Then we've come to the end of the line
Want me to stay
Oh baby, show it
Don't be afraid
Don't be afraid, oh, don't break this heart of mine
Now's the time, if I'm right
Then we've come to the end of the line

Come to the end of the line
We've come to the end of the line
Come to the end of the line
Oh, baby
We've come to the end of the line
Come to the end of the line
We've come to the end of the line
Come to the end of the line
Come to the end of the line
Come to the end of the line
Oh, the end of the line
We've come to the end of the line
