

Why

Hootie & The Blowfish

Baby, I don't wanna close my eyes
I don't wanna miss a moment with you
Won't let the stars fade tonight
Tell me too and I will shoot down the moon
Don't you keep me guessing, here's my only question

Why baby, why waste a moment like this
Give me all you've got to give
Let me be the one you can't resist
Why, tell me why would we ever deny
What feels so damn right
If this is the where and now's the when then tell me why
Why, why, why, why

When a million little things add up
To something that we both can't explain
We can say nothing at all
'Cause your eyes say everything

Why, baby why waste a moment like this
Give me all you've got to give
Let me be the one you can't resist
Why, tell me why would we ever deny
What feels so damn right
If this is the where and now's the when then tell me why
Why, why, why, why

You're in my head, you're in my heart
In the hands of fate
I want you in my arms

Why, baby why waste a moment like this
Give me all you've got to give
Let me be the one you can't resist
Why, tell me why would we ever deny
What feels so damn right
If this is the where and now's the when then tell me why
Oh, oh, tell me why
Why, why, why, why
