

Out of Tune

Hooverphonic

Overwhelming as they are
Breeding hope by counting stars
Merge the bitterness the pain
Which I'm sure
You can explain again

One gets hurt when she feels small and she's longing for some peace Being the centre of it all slow attack but fast release Hear the difference in vain
Out of tune but just not quite the same

Overwhelming as they are
with their mystifying glow
Breeding hope by counting stars
as they hunger for the show Hear the difference in vein
Out of tune but just not quite the same
