

Drive You Out of My Mind

Hot Chelle Rae

It's been twenty four hours since you walked out the door,
Smoke in the air,
And empty bottles on the floor.
With the keys in my hand,
The worlds spinnin' around.

If I could change my life,
I would change last night.

Now I can't see the lines on the road up ahead,
And with everything you said, it just can't be,
You're leaving me,
You're leaving me.

To make this right,
I'm gonna drive you out of my mind, tonight.

It's a road side station off four fifty-nine,
A pack of cigarettes, and sick pack,
For the ride.
A fifth tank of gas,
But, my hearts sittin' on 'E'.

Well, lets make this, I can go.
It's gonna bring you back to me.

Now I can't see the lines on the road up ahead,
And with everything you said, it just can't be,
You're leaving me,
You're leaving me.

And I'm doing 99 with the radio on,
And with every single song I don't believe,
You're leaving me,
You're leaving me.

To make this right,
I'm gonna drive you out of my mind, tonight.

The love and the hate,
The liquor and the pain.
It's the song with my heart,
And the road,
And the reign.

There's no way to keep these tear inside.

I can't see the lines in the road up ahead,
And with everything you said,
It just can't be,
You're leaving me,
You're leaving me.

I'm doing 99 with the radio on,
And they're playing our song,
And I don't believe,
You're leaving me,

You're leaving me.

This time, I'm gonna drive you out of my mind, tonight.....
