

Too Much

Hot Chelle Rae

Bad habits make all the best friends
Won't leave me alone in my head
Not knowing who you are right now
These voices get loud

And I know if I'm up at 3 AM
I'll just end up texting you again
I can't keep myself from spiraling
Pass out wake up do it all again

And I know if I'm up at 3 AM
I'll just end up texting you again
I can't keep myself from spiraling
Pass out wake up do it all again

Yeah I think about my ex too much
Too much
Yeah I drink too much
Too much
I stay up too much
Too much
I wish I didn't love you way too much

A New Year a new you a new scene
You act like you never knew me
Things wrote I wish I could unsend
Cause you leave em on read

And I know if I'm up at 3 AM
I'll just end up texting you again
I can't keep myself from spiraling
Pass out wake up do it all again

I know if I'm up at 3 AM
I'll just end up texting you again
I can't keep myself from spiraling
Pass out wake up do it all again

Yeah I think about my ex too much
Too much
Yeah I drink too much
Too much
I stay up too much
Too much
I wish I didn't love you way too much

Bad habits make all the best friends
Won't leave me alone

I know if I'm up at 3 AM
I'll just end up texting you again
I can't keep myself from spiraling
Pass out wake up do it all again

I know if I'm up at 3 AM
I'll just end up texting you again
I can't keep myself from spiraling

Pass out wake up do it all again

Yeah I think about my ex too much

Too much

Yeah I drink too much

Too much

I stay up too much

Too much

I wish I didn't love you way too much
