

You Come And I Go

Hotel Lights

i know you will
like everything else
it comes and goes
you're young
and full of everything good and i can't be wrong

you come and i go
you come and i go along

pink hair for a blue girl anythings funny when you're alone but hey we can leave and run out of money it's cool let's go

you come and i go

don't you want happiness at least as much as anybody else up on your toes
who was the fool that told you i won't let go
