

In the End

House of Heroes

If you insist on losing your innocence
Don't give it up to him
That's where I should have been
I'll crawl right out of my grave
Just to be with you
Like dreamers do, we'll dangle our feet off the edge

Here's the wonder keeping stars apart
I carry your heart, I carry it in my heart
And like a lion running to the slaughter
I'll run for you daughter
I'll come for you in the end

I come in late
Covered in cold
Numb in my blood
Numb in my bones
And there you are
You don't need no alibi
Your love is pardon, you see my eye to eye

Here's the wonder keeping stars apart
I carry your heart, I carry it in my heart
And like a lion running to the slaughter
I'll run for you daughter
I'll come for you in the end

I keep thinking you'll change your mind
When you see my demons come fully alive
But you're not afraid of them
You're so much braver than me
Like love is braver than fear
Like love is a mystery

Here's the wonder keeping stars apart
I carry your heart, I carry it in my heart
And like a lion running to the slaughter
I'll run for you daughter
I'll come for you in the end

I'll run for you baby, I'll be coming for you in the end
