

Indestructible

House of Lords

Landslide on the graveled innocence
Try to rise, get up and walk away
What you need today's a good defense
Something that will keep the world at bay
Drop your guard and you'll be falling after it
Clinging to outdated decency
But if you return a couple hits
Maybe you can be as tough as me

Look at me now, I'm indestructible
I don't even have a heart to hide
I'm less than humans now, I'm indestructible
Since I died

First to go was everyone I cared about
Then I started turning on myself
If I gave a damn, I shook it out
If I'm dipped in Cain, I'll give it no rest

Look at me now, I'm indestructible
I don't even have a heart to hide
I'm less than humans now, I'm indestructible
Since I died

Indestructible
Indestructible
Indestructible
Indestructible

Look at me now, I'm indestructible
I don't even have a heart to hide
I'm less than humans now, I'm indestructible
Since I died
