

Inside You

House of Lords

Love is like an old friend
Waiting on the line
Time is like a godsend
Cause I know in time
I could make you mine

Life is such a fragile thing
Something's bound to break
And now if you can hear me now
I've been through hell
For heaven's sake

Inside you, you belong to me
And I can't take anymore
Inside you, as far as I can see
I would die to be more inside you

Rain may fall around me
But I can't drown you out
Change someday will find me
But there's no way
I can live without

Your love is like a hurricane
Blowin' through my life
At times, at times I'm so ashamed
I left you cold
For all those nights

Inside you, you belong to me
And I can't take anymore
Inside you, as far as I can see
I would die to be more inside you

Inside you

Life is such a fragile thing
Something's bound to break
And now if you can hear me now
I've been through hell
For heaven's sake

Inside you, you belong to me
And I can't take anymore
Inside you, as far as I can see
I would die to be more inside you

Inside you, as far as I can see
