

Words out, we're coming to town
Words out, so spread it around
Words out, and the word is true
I'm gonna make time to make time with you

I missed you when I played LA
Missed you in Detroit, in Philadelphia, PA
I missed you in Bowling Green
You scored backstage passes, but you couldn't get to me

Oh... Joanna, I'm gonna take my time
Oh... Joanna, you've got a ticket to ride

Now listen up!

This tour we've got new rules
No wives, no girlfriends too
We're on the road, we said bye-bye
I'm gonna get you, baby, 'cause it's party time

You're the best I ever did find
That night in Kansas City, well, you blew my mind
And now you're gonna make my day
I'm bleeding for you, babe, and you're the best Band-Aid

Oh... Joanna, I'm gonna get you
Oh... Joanna, so you can do what you do, yeah
Oh... Joanna, you got a ticket to ride

I missed you when we played in Hong Kong
You know I tried to, baby, but I couldn't stay long
But I had you in Wichita Falls
I've been around the world, and Jo, you smoked them all

Oh... Joanna, I'm gonna take my time
Oh... Joanna, you got a ticket to ride
Oh... Joanna, I've gotta get to you, yeah
Oh... Joanna, so you can do what you do

Yeah, yeah, I like what you do, oh!
I'm gonna get to you
