

Looking for Strange

House of Lords

Ladies-you've got nowhere to run
Caught in my sights and under the gun
I said maybe, you'll please and satisfy
With a gypsy's kiss and sin in her eyes

'Cause I'm here for the kill
And I rise to fascinate
You're here for the thrill
It's never too late

Come on-it'll be alright
Hold on-we're coming out tonite
Inside, outside lookin' for strange
Hang on for the time of your life
So long, see ya anytime
Inside, outside lookin' for strange

Somewhere they're waiting here for me
So many hearts, so many breakin' in threes
I said lately, it's always hit-and-run
Trackin' 'em down till the damage is done

'Cause I'm here for the kill
And I rise to fascinate
You're here for the thrill
It's never too late

Come on-it'll be alright
Hold on-we're coming out tonite
Inside, outside lookin' for strange
Hang on for the time of your life
So long, see ya anytime
Inside, outside lookin' for strange

I'm here for the kill
And I rise to fascinate
You're here for the thrill
It's never too late

Come on-it'll be alright
Hold on-we're coming out tonite
Inside, outside lookin' for strange
Hang on for the time of your life
So long, see ya anytime
Inside, outside lookin' for strange

Come on-it'll be alright
Hold on-we're coming out tonite
Inside, outside lookin' for strange
Hang on for the time of your life
So long, see ya anytime
Inside, outside lookin' for strange, baby
