

New World New Eyes

House of Lords

Out of the ashes
A new sun will rise
We'll raise our glasses
To a new world with new eyes
A new world with new eyes

Here we go, here we are
Hanging on a high wire
One wrong move and baby say goodbye

Look at us, look at them
We're caught up in a crossfire
They can't touch the heart of you and I

Nobody's gonna take us, break us, make us fools again
We're gonna get through this, do this, 'cause we know we can
Gather up your courage
Gonna fight until they understand

Castles may crumble
And teardrops may fall
Bridges may burn
Till we lose it all
Out of the ashes
A new sun will rise
We'll raise our glass
To a new world with new eyes

Gonna be you and me
And nothing in-between us
Moving stronger by the light of love

It'll take all we got
With no fear they'll believe us
Guided by the stars that shine above

Nobody's gonna take us, break us, make us fools again

We're gonna get through this, do this, 'cause we know we can
Gather up your courage
Gonna fight until they understand

Castles may crumble
And teardrops may fall
Bridges may burn
Till we lose it all
Out of the ashes
A new sun will rise
We'll raise our glass
To a new world with new eyes

Castles may crumble
And teardrops may fall
Bridges may burn
Till we lose it all

Castles may crumble

And teardrops may fall
Till we lose it all
A new sun will rise

Castles may crumble
And teardrops may fall
(With new eyes)
Bridges may burn
Till we lose it all
(New eyes)

Out of the ashes
To a new world with new eyes
