

Permission to Die

House of Lords

Made a Wow of Forever
Swore fro worse and for better
But we are still together
I don't know tonight!

Going out and you're staying
Home again where you're laying
What the hell game you're playing
"Hey Hey"!!

You're winding down,
I'm winding up
You're on the ground
And I'm still flying

You're going through your life
Like you're just waiting for my
Permission to Die!
You're always standing by
Like you're just asking for my
Permission to Die!

Used to be hot'n'heavy
Twenty-four-seven ready
Dressed to kill in that teddy
Where's my woman gone?

Other Girls almost wearing nothing
I catch'em staring
Dancing to show they're daring
Yeah "Hey Hey"!!

You're winding down, I'm winding up
You're on the ground and I'm still flying

You're going through your life
Like you're just waiting for my
Permission to Die!
You're always standing by
Like you're just asking for my
Permission to Die!
