

Swimmin with the Sharks

House of Lords

You never see'em coming
'Till they're pulling you down
Princes of Atlantis
With blood on their crowns

Tehy act as if they're slumming
Say they're buying you cheap
Tell you what the plan is Trying to get you in deep
Get you in deep

Oooh.
And by the time you stop and think
Bt the time you turn around
It's too late. You're already sinking
Doesn't matter if you drown
you gotta know...

You're playing with your life
Going swimming with the sharks
Every smile conceals a knife
That'll find you in the dark
You're plaing with your life
Going swimming with the sharks
The strong alone survive
The Dive!

The prettier the faces
Babe, backer the souls,
Underneath the heat are
The coolest of cold!.

They treat you like a driver
Taking them for a ride
Tantalizing bait to
Reel you in with the tide
In with the tide.

Oooh.
And by the time you stop and think
Bt the time you turn around
It's too late, you're already sinking
Doesn't matter if you drown
you gotta know...

You're playing with your life
Going swimming with the sharks
Every smile conceals a knife
That'll find you in the dark
You're plaing with your life
Going swimming with the sharks
The strong alone survive
The Dive!

Oooh!
Another pill, another drink
Doesn't matter anymore

It's too late. You're already sinking

Oooh!

Another needle dripped in ink

Isn't washing you ashore

It's too late. You're already siking

Doesn't matter if you drown

You gotta know
