

Talkin' 'Bout Love

House of Lords

I don't know just where I'm going
I don't know it's been so long
Inside my room I feel like cryin'
I wish I knew where I belong

I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love

This world is cold and I'm so lonely
Inside my heart I can't go on
Without you love I feel like dyin'
Without your love I turn to stone

I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love

If time is a healer
Then tell why do I still bleed for you
I still remember
And the nights I can't forget
The memories burned inside my heart

(I'm talkin' about love)

And in our hearts we're all just beggars
Lonely players in a play
And in a world that's spinning madly
Every soul must find its way

I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love
I'm talkin' about love

Oh yeah
Yeah
