

Abandone

Houston Calls

Oh, it has been some time
And it has come to an end.
We kept our old friends close.
They helped keep us in check.

Oh what a sorry scene.
It was such a long time now we're feeling fine
And as the wait is over we're that much closer.
We all can get a little scared.
We fall, but get back up again.
Don't stop.
Come on keep trying.
If we give up we sink.

Oh, I would never allow
I would never let you believe that this is what we wish.
It's like a glass bowl and we're the goldfish.
It's just our love.

We all
We fall
Don't stop
Don't stop
