

Staring At The Sun

Hum

Staring at the sun and I dreamed of the deceiver, smoking her smile and smiling her smoke.
I wish everyone would dream what I saw,
slithered wings as it's curing my mom.
Staring at the sun and I dreamed of a missile imploding my eyes and poisoned my soul.
I wish everyone would dream what I saw,
choosing to fight when it's hotter than sun.
Staring at the sun and it's four separate colors,
powered my senses and poisoned my soul.
Staring at the sun and I dreamed of a future, it burnt like a fever, crimson is cool. Other Hum songs
