

Guard the Blind

Human Fortress

We're part of some strange plan
Feel a little lost in Johann's hand
Who can take a hold -
To save us on the stony ground -
I know

Gonna burn to ashes
A self-defeating prophecy
Gonna fell their lashes
To goat us on
It's all forlorn

Our king dictates a dreadful war
Follow the blind we're still fighting for
We're marching on the path of no return
To try to guard the blind

We couldn't see the sky
The smoke of battle right in our sight
The moment Johann died
We really had no chance to win this fight

Gonna burn to ashes
A self-defeating prophecy
Gonna fell their lashes
To goat us on
It's all forlorn

Our king dictates a dreadful war
Follow the blind we're still fighting for
We're marching on the path of no return
To try to guard the blind
