

Legion of the Damned

Human Fortress

Avid for power
Hungry for fame
Never tolerate an opposition
He is the wisdom
He is the law
If he is wrong he's gonna change it all

He is the swayer
Almighty god
Suspecting everyone for insurrection
Assault the allies
Made war by breach
Dared to refuse their sole subjection

Ready to strike
When might is right
Capture for the land of evil
Second to none
Never outgunned
'cause we are the legion of the damned

Want to abase you
Down on your knees
We overrun your troops effortlessly
Smell smoke and powder
And lick your scab
We're gonna find you when we're coming back

Surmount the riges
And flood the tales
We're gonna find you when we search the glades
Allay our anger
Don't thwart our fate
Make no resistance before you feel our hate

Ready to strike
When might is right
Capture for the land of evil
Second to none
Never outgunned
'cause we are the legion of the damned
