

Falling leaves
Are rustling on the ground
Hear the sound in the meadow
Restore my courage to face life
Close my eyes I am lonely
Silent night I hear a gust of wind
Whispering but I don't understand

I'm listening to
This must be you

When a shape of light
Glistens deep inside
Familiarity It's close to me
Burning up my fate
There's a ghost of shining light

Harvest moon
I see the gleam of stars
Bright and far out of nowhere
Shadows of the past are wandering
It's closing in dissolve slowly
But it seems to awaken memories
Eternally it struck me right away

Can't believe it's true
this must be you

No justice - who states for whom the bell tolls
No justice - who meet my fate
Despite this - who stops a higher power
Their damnation - desperation this time

When a shape of light
Glistens deep inside
Familiarity It's close to me
Burning up my fate
There's a ghost of shining light
