Hundred Reasons

I believe if I fly
I can find my way back home
I believe I can try
But I felt that it's not the end
I go blind I can't see
But I need to find my way home
You'll find me waiting
And I'll be waiting

No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again

I don't need to declare
That I hate you that I know
You could live you could die
I don't care 'cause it's not the end
Did it hurt
You're in pain i don't care
'Cause i got my way home
You'll find me waiting
And I'll be waiting

No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again

Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you

And I'll be waiting
No excuses
Could make this worth it
Time again

Wasting time with rivals
I'll come home
To see you
