Savanna

Hundred Reasons

How you plan to stop the world I don't know the plans you screened The brain will march away Clipping against the wall

Lower the tone again Youth was on your side Pretend you were born again Youth forgot the time

Clutching at the straws you took
The shortest one you pulled
The reconcile was tantamount
The blocked pores would never close

Lower the tone again
Youth forgot the time
Get on your knees for saviors [Repeat x4]

It's about time you embraced the cold Hurtful hateful I'm coming for you today Get on your knees for saviors [Repeat x4]
