

Priscilla

Hunter Valentine

Priscilla on the strip is cold as ice
She made you lose your grip that fateful night
For twenty dollars you were on your knees
Pride on the nightstand, she was hard to please
'Cause she's been down for so long, this thing is feeling wrong
Cause she's been dowwwwn
She's loving the late night
The only thing that makes her feel just right
She's loving the late night hoooooooooooo ooooo hoooooooo
She'll hustle her way to take everything
She told your wife exactly where you been
That pretty woman made you fall apart
You are a victim to her lonely heart
'Cause she's been down for so long, this thing is feeling wrong
Cause she's been dowwwwn
She's loving the late night
The only thing that makes her feel just right
She's loving the late night hoooooooooooo ooooo hoooooooo
Shouldn't she try to save herself, she's running out of time

Shouldn't you just refrain yourself i think you'll lose your mi nd
Shouldn't you just detain yourself, you're walking the fine lin e
Shouldn't she try to save herself, she's running out of time
'Cause she's been down for so long, this thing is feeling wrong
Cause she's been dowwwwn
She's loving the late night
The only thing that makes her feel just right
She's loving the late night hoooooooooooo ooooo hoooooooo
