

I'll See You Tonite

Huntingtons

tonight when i'm walkin' by myself and you're walkin' there with him i'll be wishin' that was me alright so i'm not the cutest guy and he's got the coolest car but there's just no chemistry tonight you're mine completely if only in my dreams tonight you'll see the possibility tonight tonight

tonight i'll be waiting for my cue when he hurts you with those words my shoulder will be there alright so i missed it once again but the time is getting close when he'll tell you that he don't care
