

She's A Brat

Huntingtons

when she was young nobody wanted to baby sit her now shes all grown and all i wanna do is hit her yeah she's such a pain she's rattling my brain she's so annoying and she's going to drive me insane
shes a brat!
and she's always at my door
shes a brat!
i cant stand that girl no more yeah, yeah, yeah
shes a brat!
she steals the candy from the kida on halloween knocks over all the trash cans in the neighborhood, how mean she likes to run around and scream and yell all night look at her funny and she'll try to pick a fight all the neighbors say her heads not screwed on tight theres something about that girl that just ain't right oh no!
some people say its just a form of self expression i dont care somebody outta teach that girl a lesson
