

Got Jealous

Hurt

If I don't get outta here, I'm gonna kill someone I've gotta single fear; I think someone will come
Just to put me away, into a cage
Where I never would see the sun

If you don't get out of here, I'm gonna kill someone
I think he's been in your room for way too damn long
I want him out of here before I kill someone
So he never could never see the sun

In a full moon night everything was goin fine
I was doin' me some lines until I gripped my knife
Then I wanted his eyes more than she wanted his eyes
So he never could see the sun

Then all I could see Was someone other than me holding you (I think I got jealous, I think I got jealous)
Then you my love could be left to prove (I think I got jealous)
It's the worst thing I'd ever do
'Cause I knew his face before he ran away (I think I got jealous)

Another a full moon night, everything was goin' fine
I was doin' me some lines and then I took a little ride
And with a hominoid reason I dragged me into believin'
I should finish what I'd begun

Now all I could see
Is someone else but me holding you (I think I got jealous, I think I got jea lous)
When all I can see, all I could see
Was someone holding you, holding you (I think I got jealous) its the worst thing that I could do (I think I got jealous)
'Cause I knew (I think I got jealous)
I knew (I think you got jealous)
That he's holding you (I think I got jealous)
It's the worst thing that you could do (I think I got jealous)
'Cause you knew (I think I got jealous)
You knew (I think I got jealous)

Will you let me know if you let me go, my love, my love
So will you let me know when you let me go my love, my love
Will you let me know when you let me go my love oh my love
How will you let me know when you let me go my love, my love

Hey you, you're everything to me
Oh you, you're everything to me
Yeah you, worth everything in me
Yeah you, you're everything to me
Yeah you, you're everything to me
Yeah you, mean everything to me
Oh will you let me know if you let me go, my love
You're everything to me
