

Enjoy Your Greed

Hydria

Everything happens so fast
As fast as the speed of light
We're running in circles, waiting out for the truth in this illusory world

Can't you see we are at risk?
Open up your eyes right now!
The same old faith
Can't save us now if we won't wake up

This can be the end
of all the things that we once knew Everything will stand behind

Open your eyes!
What do you see?
(What you see, what you see)
We cannot run, we cannot hide
It won't stop, never stop!
This world is agonizing in a deep dying silence

This can be the end
of all the things that we once knew?
Don't you know the world cannot survive
to this cold tragedy that burns what's alive?
Everything will stay behind

Treading everything along your way
Killing, destroying and feeding the rage of nature
Forget your own descent, enjoy your greed!
