

Blue

Hypnogaja

As I lay awake in my bed, I'm dreaming of you
Sadness overcomes me
Darkness consumes me
And I'm longing for you

This longing for you leaves me so blue
It's so hard loving you

Well, I like looking at myself through the reflection in your eyes
I seem at peace and I feel whole again
But you're not here to ease the pain

The pain is overwhelming
My head is swelling with thoughts of you
And it leaves me blue
So blue

Tired and frustrated, I scribble thoughts down into words on a page
But I can't shake this blood from my veins
And I can't shake this pain

This dark sadness
This raving madness
This memory of you
It leaves me blue
So blue

This wanting's taunting me
Your love is haunting me
Life is death without you

Your presence pleases me
Your absence teases me
What am I to do?
Our love is blue
So blue
Our love is blue

So blue (4x)

As I lay awake in my bed, I'm dreaming of you
