

Nothing to see
I haven't seen
360 degrees
Still don't know what it means
Farther away
Still all the same
Can't remember the day
I had something to say

I feel the motion
But time seems to have it's stops and starts
No matter where you are

No real intention
All that I have now is my fear
It's all I hear

Left behind
Lost inside the confines of my mind
Try to find
Someone to hear me call
I search for signs
Of another who can bring me back to life
I hear the sound
Static

I've traveled the line
Now I've fallen behind
Don't know what planet I'm on
I've been gone too long

I lost direction
As time pulled me close and then so far
Through a million stars

No new dimension
And all that I have now is my fear
It's all I hear

Lost inside the confines of my mind
Try to find
Someone to hear me call
I search for signs
Of another who can bring me back to life
I hear the sound
Static

Scan the horizon
I can't seem to find the big reveal
It's all so unreal

Left behind
Lost inside the confines of my mind
Try to find
Someone to hear me call
I search for signs

Of another who can bring me back to life
I hear the sound
Static
